Worshipping Together

A Gathering of Mississippi Unitarian Universalists of All Ages

Join us as we create an intergenerational community for a weekend to learn and worship together.

Our goal will be to answer this question:

“How can we do intergenerational worship in a way that feeds everyone?”

September 17-19, 2010

5:00 p.m. Friday through 12:00 p.m. Sunday

A weekend of activities designed especially for

Mississippi Unitarian Universalists

Bring musical instruments—drums, guitars, banjos, flutes, bells, and whatever else is portable! We are gonna make music together!

Registration begins at 5:00 on Friday with dinner served promptly at 6 p.m.

Our Featured UU Ministers:

Rev. LoraKim Joyner

Rev. LoraKim is a UU Community Minister engaged in multispecies ministry, a certified trainer in nonviolent communication, and a veterinarian working in avian conservation. She is well known for creating dynamic multigenerational worship services. (<http://beyondwrongdoing.blogspot.com/>).

Rev. Fred Hammond

Rev. Fred is a consulting minister at Our Home Congregation and UU Congregation of Tuscaloosa, AL. He is also the Mid South District Justice Trustee and has been very active in this role.

Mid-South District Leaders:

Eunice Benton, Mid-South District Executive Director
Connie Goodbread, Mid-South District Education Director
PLUS — Teaching Elders and Worship Associates!

Learning Together

Worshipping Together

Each activity during the retreat builds upon the next.
Each event strengthens the outcome of the whole.
The best experience will be to participate the entire weekend.
Stay at the Gray Center for the entire event!
